Dear Friends,

We at Chabad of West Boca Raton will celebrate as we move into our new center, The Herman & Olga Wachtenheim Chabad Center. Our dream has become reality.

That's where YOU come in!

As you know, Chabad's doors are open to all, member and non-member alike.

Every Jew is invited and welcome to our shul, Hebrew school, and programs.

So you ask yourself - why become a member? Of course "membership has its privileges." Membership perks include: listing of departed loved ones in the Yom Kippur YISKOR booklet, free lectures and classes. Plus, an attractive listing of our Honorary, Gold and Pillar membership families will be displayed in the Synagogue

But that's not why I ask you to join.

I ask you to join to make your Chabad that much stronger! With every new family that joins we become a stronger Chabad.

Also, we find that members tend to come to shul more often (to get their money's worth), and we do like to see you at Shul more often.

"New Member" your 1st year's dues would be discounted 25%.

In honor of the New Year, I ask that you strongly consider joining.

We at west, now have our own secretary Rivka Bukiet (our daughter-in-law) You can now call the west office at 561-487-2934 for all your questions.

Please complete these forms even if you have previously and mail to: Chabad of West Boca Raton, 9040 Kimberly Blvd. Boca Raton Fl. 33434

We want YOUR family to become part of OUR family.

I look forward to seeing you at Chabad (member or not...)

With warm personal regards,

Rabbi Zalman Bukiet
